The Cadets gained on every exchange of punts, and when Blodgett fumbled one of Coffin's dicks, Merrillat fell on the ball on the Navy's fifteen-yard line. The Army secured its first touchdown when Pritchard made a perfect forward pass to Merrillat, who ran across the line without opposition. The try for goal falled.

The second touchdown was made on a repetition of these plays. The Navy kicked off, and the Army returned the punt. Blodgett again fumbled, and again an alert Cadet player fell on the ball on the Middles' thirty-six-yard line. In the final quarter a punting duel quickly developed, working the ball within striking distance of the Middies goal. The soldiers uncovered an old-fashloned attack, which proved irresistible. Impossible to Extract Thread of Truth

F ROM the tangled skein of official and unofficial versions of fighting in Russian Poland, it still is impossible to extract the thread of verity. Except that the Russians and the Germans continue their great struggle for supremacy between the Vistula and the Warthe Rivers, nothing is known.

Field Marshal von Hindenburg—his new title was bestowed on him on the buttlefield for his protection of the eastern frontier—in a general order issued at Thora, declared his troops have brought to a standstill "the offensive of the numerically superior Russian army." He announced also the capture of more than 60,000 prisoners, and some 350 guns of various classes. The order quotes a telegram from Emperor William promoting General von Hindenburg to a field marshal, sad thanking him and his troops for their provess.

Berlin claims successes for German arms. At Lowicz, northeast of Lodg, the German official report says Emperor William's forces have reattacked, and that near Mowo and Radom heavy Russian attacks have been repulsed.

Petrograd merely claims progress for the Russians at "certain points" in the vicinity of Lods.

Southward, in Poland and in Ga-licia the Russians assert they have won important successes and cap-tured many men and guns. Vienna declares the situation in this locality ports that the Germans are attack-ing heavily near Arras in an effort to break through to the coast.

A news agency dispatch from Copenhagen says the two cable lines between Denmark and Russis have been cut in the Baltic, sup-posedly by German cruisers.

Moutevideo, Uruguay, reports ten British warships in the Atlantic, 300 miles off that place, while Lima, Peru, sighted four men-of-war, of unknown nationality, steaming north, off the Chilean coast.

Germany has ordered its subjects in Portugal to leave the republic.

LONDON, November 28.—"We have) made progress at certain points," is all that Grand Duke Nicholas, Russian commander-in-chief, says of the battle of Lodz. According to inform-ation from unofficial but usually creditable sources, however, the Russians have gained a great victory over the German armies, which made their third attempt to advance to Warsaw. This brief reference to the battle added to what was said in the previ-ous report from Russian headquarters, is taken here to mean that if the Gormans have not been defeated already. the Russians have drawn a corden around them from which they will have great afficulty in escaping.

Some correspondents in Petrograd, who quote the highest military sources, report that this cordon is steadily tightening, and that the Russlan guns are spreading death among the German armies caught in its grip. They declare the only hope for the Germans, said to number 150,000, is that two army corps sent to their relief may be able to break through the Russian line.

That the Germans have not given up hope is shown by the Berlin official statement to-night, saying the Germans have recommended attacks, and that fighting continues. VON HINDENBURG CLAIMS
